Schweizer
Illustrierte
Zeitung
Ihr Traum
ging in Erfüllung

Richmond Beach Saltwater Park

8. Kitsap Peninsula
7. Point Jefferson
6. Old Man House (Chief Seattle's Burial Place)
5. Bainbridge Island
4. Skiff Point

four years old. One of my favorite places has always been e was no easy way to get to the beach. We would park tracks and climb down over the 'rip-rap' (large rocks beach umbrella down over the rocks.

m the log booms). We would claim one reat place to climb and roll down.

About this time the old ships that were no longer being used for shipping were brought down to Richmond Beach and burned. The newspapers gave notice when this was going to occur on certain nights. It was quite a show and well attended!
Now we have the Bluff Trail to enjoy one of the best views anywhere. From where you are standing you can see for miles away an ever changing scene. Ships from all over the world pass by." – Helen Cox Oltman.
Dedicated to those who made memories here and all who are making memories now!

Old boat burning at Richmond Beach

Welcoming Figure honoring the 1st people of King County.
Dedicated Oct. 3, 1998

rical Museum, Director, Vicki Stiles • Shoreline Parks and Cultural Services, Director, Dick Deal • Gift from Helen Cox Oltman Family to the City of Shorel